COMPTROLLER J. F. T. O'CONNOR HAS RESIGNED

Plans Return To California To Enter Race
For Governor

POLITICAL AFFAIRS OFFER PROBLEMS

Some Ticklish Situations Arise as The Campaign Nears

WASHINGTON, Jan. 20.—The White House announced today the resignation of J. F. T. O'Connor as comptroller of the currency and said President Roosevelt had asked that it not take effect until April 1.

O'Connor, Los Angeles attorney, who is expected to run for the Democratic nomination for governor of California in the August primaries, said in his letter of resignation he wished to return to his home state "to take care of pressing matters there."

The letter was dated January 14. Replying under date of January 19, the President said, "In view of the fact there remains important unfinished work in connection with the payment of dividends to depositors in closed national banks requiring at least your part time attention, I shall ask you to withhold your resignation until April first."

The President's letter was addressed to "My Dear Jeff."

Candidacies Being Announced
WASHINGTON, Jan. 20.—Preliminary maneuvers in the congressional election campaign are placing some ticklish political problems before President Roosevelt and other Democratic leaders.

The elections, to be held in November, involve 34 senators, 34 governors, and all members of the house. Announcements of candidacies are being made almost daily.

Developments this week have foreshadowed tough renomination battles for two administration supporters in the senate—Democratic Leader Barkley of Kentucky and Senator Dieterich of Illinois.

There have been strong hints from Kentucky that Gov. A. B. (Happy) Chandler would run against Barkley. Despite Chandler's support of the New Deal, most political observers here expected the President to back Barkley.

Already five administration supporters in the senate have made plans to attend a banquet in Barkley's honor at Louisville Saturday.

Chandler declined to attend the dinner. His supporters arranged a luncheon the same day in honor of the governor.

Despite Barkley's prominence in the national political scene, his friends conceded a race against Chandler might be close.

Mr. Roosevelt already has been surveying the Illinois situation in conferences with party leaders from that state. He talked Tuesday with Mayor Edward J. Kelly of Chicago and Democratic National Committeeman Patrick A. Nash. Gov. Henry Horner, representing another faction, was expected to visit the White House today.

Deiterich will come up for renomination April 12 in the first of the year's primaries.

As the primaries approach, the President must decide not only what part he will play in helping those who have supported him, but what stand the national administration will take on Democratic candidates who have opposed its legislative proposals.

Seven Democratic senators who fought the President's court bill come up in this year's elections. They are Clark of Missouri, George of Georgia, Gillette of Iowa, McCarran of Nevada, Smith of South Carolina, Tydings of Maryland, and Van Nuys of Indiana.

Recent political developments also have involved the New York gubernatorial situation. Assistant Attorney General Robert H. Jackson, regarded in some quarters as a possible presidential aspirant in 1940, has indicated he would be willing to make the race.

Senator Wagner and Postmaster General Farley also have been mentioned in this connection, as have several other New Yorkers.

J. F. T. O'Connor resigned as comptroller of the currency today, as a preliminary to entering the race for governor of California.

LIBRARY BE CLOSED UNTIL AFTER FUNERAL HOUR
Friday morning the Sedalia Public Library will not open until 10 o'clock owing to the funeral services for John J. English, father of Miss Mary English, a member of the library staff.

WILL KELL RESIGNS DUE TO ILLNESS

The resignation of Will I. Kell, as sexton of Crown Hill and Calvary cemetery, after 28 years of service, was accepted by the cemetery board, at a meeting held Wednesday afternoon. Mr. Kell has been ill and is now receiving treatment in Kansas City. He is better, however, and may be able to return home in a few days.

Glenn Kell, a brother of W. I. Kell, was appointed acting sexton.

Members of the board are: Clyde Heynen, chairman; Mrs. C. H. Bard, Mrs. Wm. R. Courtney, Mrs. John R. Bockelman, Jr., Matt Lane, George K. Mackey and Will Staley.

EMPLOYERS PAY IN $3,592,758 IN PAYROLL TAXES

Rush On To Get It In and Avoid Penalty of 1 Per Cent

By The Associated Press.
JEFFERSON CITY, Jan. 20.—A total of $3,592,758 had been paid to the state unemployment compensation commission by 3,067 Missouri employers as a 1.8 per cent tax on 1937 payrolls today—the deadline set for the payments.

Of this total, $1,343,612, or more than a third, was paid yesterday. The payments so far have averaged $1,172 per employer.

W. L. Patterson, a member of the commission, said the rush to get in under the deadline would probably send today's receipts soaring above yesterday's high figure, and heavy returns the remainder of the week.

The commission had estimated the 1937 payroll payments would total about $11,000,000. They will form a part of the fund from which benefits to jobless workers will be paid starting in 1939.

Penalty Be Assessed
A penalty of 1 per cent a month interest will be assessed on delinquencies, however, extensions up to 60 days are possible under the law and Patterson said most of the requests for such extensions could be granted to eliminate any unfairness caused by misunderstanding of the new law.

The commission sent out contribution blanks to 9,138 employers hiring a total of 601,430 persons.

"Now that the deadline for first payments is here," Patterson said, "we are receiving inquiries from many employers who say they are uncertain as to whether they come under the law or that they never received any notice from the commission."

"We are working as fast as possible to straighten out these cases."

The payroll tax will be increased to 2.7 per cent for 1938. The amount collected this year added to the receipts for 1937 and a credit from the federal government of $4,500,000 from the 0.9 per cent tax on 1936 payrolls will give the state an estimated "pooled fund" of $32,000,000 with which to start benefit payments, the commission has estimated.

DINNER TONIGHT FOR CAMERA CLUB

A feature of the Sedalia Camera Club's meeting Thursday evening will be a dinner to be served at 7:15 o'clock at the St. Francis Hotel.

An interesting program has been planned. A talk and demonstration on "Composition" will be given by George J. Lass, of Lass-Truitt studios. An illustrated slide lecture on "Fundamentals of Photography" will be given by the program committee, with John Z. Montgomery in charge.

The subject for print competition for this meeting is "Winter." Judging of these prints will conclude the program for the evening.

FREIGHTER BOMBED SEVERAL KILLED

LONDON, Jan. 20.—Dispatches to Lloyd's of Tarragona said the British freighter Thorpesen was badly damaged and several of her crew killed today in an insurgent air raid on that Spanish government seaport, southwest of Barcelona.

CASUALTIES HEAVY FROM AIR RAIDS

PERPIGNAN, France, Jan. 20.—Insurgent air squadrons today attacked Barcelona for the second successive day, killing and wounding dozens, said travelers crossing the frontier.

They estimated 300 persons had been killed and 600 wounded in the terrific two-day air bombardment of the capital of government Spain.

CAPTURE U. S. SHIP TRYING TO RUN BLOCKADE

Rebel Gunboats Take Oil
Tanker Off Barcelona
Tuesday

VESSEL MANNED BY AMERICAN CREW

French Warships Near
Scene Reported Declining
To Interfere

PARIS, Jan. 20.—(AP)—Authoritative sources last night reported the American tanker Nantucket Chief had been captured by two Spanish insurgent gunboats off Barcelona Tuesday.

These sources declared the capture occurred while the American tanker was attempting to run insurgent Generalissimo Francisco Franco's blockade of the eastern Spanish coast.

The tanker, formerly named the Gulflight, was enroute to the Catalan capital with a cargo of Russian oil.

The capture was witnessed by French warships which declined to interfere. They reported the incident to the French navy ministry, however, the same sources said.

The Nantucket Chief was flying the American flag and carried an American crew.

French reports said the tanker was last seen being escorted by the insurgent vessels to Palma, Mallorca, island stronghold of the insurgent sea and air forces.

(Lloyd's shipping register lists the 5,189 tanker Gulflight of Port Arthur, Texas, as owned by the Gulf Oil Corporation.)

Attempted "Gas" Delivery

NEW YORK, Jan. 20.—The American steamship Nantucket Chief was captured by insurgent war vessels as it attempted to deliver its second cargo of gasoline to the Spanish government, Daniel W. Armstrong, vice-president of the Eastern State Petroleum Co., said today.

"Armstrong said 'the custom in the past' has been for insurgent captors to escort captured American ships into port, unload and seize the cargo, and release the ship and crew. He said this had been the experience of 'several other American ships,' none associated with his company, however."

LIGHT RAIN FALLS IN THIS SECTION

A light rain fell in Sedalia Wednesday night and Thursday morning, measuring .2 of an inch. This is the first precipitation this year.

From .65 to 1.35 inches of rain had fallen in the southwest and south-central portions of the state this morning. There was a lighter fall in other sections.

Government Forecaster Roscoe Nunn at St. Louis, said the rain would help winter wheat "decidedly" and would have an immediate effect in restoring water to dried-up ponds and creeks.

Surface moisture has been "very bad" for the last three weeks, Nunn said. The crop, planted late because of dry conditions, got off to a poor start and was quite small and not up to very good stand.

There has been an acute water shortage on many farms, especially in the Springfield area, where water supplies were said to be the lowest ever known, he reported.

SPECULATION OVER F. B. I. ACTIVITIES

ST. PAUL, Jan. 20.—Some of the mystery surrounding a trip out of St. Paul yesterday by federal agents who brought Peter Anders, confessed Charles S. Ross kidnaper here Tuesday night, was cleared up today with word that J. Edgar Hoover, federal bureau of investigation chief, six associates and two prisoners had spent last night in Superior, Wis.

The identity of the prisoners still was in doubt, however. Donald MacCrae, manager of the hotel where the group stayed, said one of them resembled photographs of Anders, but a tray still was being taken to bureau headquarters here at mealtime.

Watches had assumed it was for Anders, who has not been seen since he was brought here. There was some speculation that a new arrest, possibly two, had been made in the Superior area.

In Superior Hoover announced he was returning to St. Paul.

Edward P. Guinane, local FBI chief, declined to amplify his statement of last night that there would be no announcement before late today. He would not discuss the case otherwise.

NO LEASE BY FORD ON M-K-T. SHOPS

The Sedalia Democrat, receiving many inquiries concerning rumors that Henry Ford had leased the Katy shops, Wednesday wired the M. K. T. headquarters in St. Louis and asked if the rumor could be verified. This morning the following letter was received:

"January 19, 1938. G-400
Sedalia Democrat,
Sedalia, Missouri.
Gentlemen: Referring to your wire today, concerning rumors that Henry Ford had leased the Katy shops at Sedalia.

In talking with Agent Buchanan, I asked him to call you and advise that the rumor was without foundation, and we had nothing to indicate that any handling had been given to such an arrangement.

We do appreciate your interest in wiring us concerning the matter. Yours very truly,
George C. Smith,
Assistant to the President."

SUB-COMMITTEE IN APPROVAL OF STANLEY F. REED

Vote Comes Immediately
After Brief Hearing
on Nominee

By The Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, Jan. 20.—A senate judiciary subcommittee voted unanimous approval today of the nomination of Stanley F. Reed to be a justice of the supreme court.

The vote was taken immediately after the committee concluded a brief hearing on Reed's qualifications.

Senator Logan (D-Ky) said there was no discussion of Reed's qualifications by the committee members.

The brief hearing was attended by Reed, now solicitor general, and Attorney General Cummings.

The attorney general praised Reed's legal ability and said the nomination of the 53-year-old Kentuckian was a "great personal satisfaction."

The judiciary subcommittee will put the nomination of the solicitor general before the full judiciary committee Monday. Prompt approval was expected and final senate confirmation was slated for early next week.

Cummings' testimony followed disclosure by Chairman Logan (D-Ky) that only one protest against Reed had been received.

Logan said the protest came from a "gentleman in New York who wrote he did not know the solicitor general."

Career Is Outlined
In a statement to the committee, Cummings, who was accompanied to the hearing by the 53-year-old Reed, outlined the nominee's career.

Starting law practice in Kentucky in 1910, Cummings said, Reed later helped organize a tobacco growers' cooperative association and served as general counsel for the federal farm board.

Reed also served as an attorney for the RFC, Cummings said. "It is a great personal satisfaction that he has been nominated for the supreme court," Cummings said. He said Reed's services with the justice department as solicitor general "were of the highest type."

When the attorney general finished, Logan told the committee he wished "to testify in behalf of Mr. Reed myself."

Describing Reed as a "clean, high-class Christian gentleman," Logan added:

"Kentucky never has produced a finer lawyer than Stanley Reed."

GARNETT STARKEY HURT IN ACCIDENT

Garnett Starkey, 23 year old son of Mrs. George Starkey, 816 North Stewart avenue, was injured early this morning when an automobile in which he was riding overturned on the waterworks road, south of Sedalia.

With him were James Watson and Hugh Wasson.

Starkey was driving his father's car, and, it was said, turned off to avoid another car and the car turned over.

He was taken to the Bothwell hospital where an examination showed a bad injury to his left hand and arm.

DEATH TOLL IN FIRE TO FORTY-SEVEN

ST. HYACINTHE, Que., Jan. 20.—(AP)—Officials last night listed 47 persons dead from the swift fire that trapped students and teachers in the college of the Sacred Heart early Tuesday.

Twenty-two charred bodies lay in the morgue of this small Quebec town, but only four were officially identified.

Dr. Paul Morin, district coroner, opening an inquest into the early morning tragedy, listed as dead the 25 others missing in the belief their bodies were buried under the frozen wreckage of the school.

Fears were expressed the death toll might mount to more than 50 when five of the most seriously injured were reported close to death. They were administered the last rites of the Roman Catholic church.

Twenty-one of those who escaped the flaming structure were hospitalized.

REPRIEVE FOR A WEEK GRANTED IN TWO EXECUTIONS

Mrs. Marie Porter Had Been Scheduled To Go
To Chair Friday

By The Associated Press.
SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Jan. 20.—Acting Governor John Steele announced today he had reprieved for one week the executions of Mrs. Marie Porter and Angelo Ralph Giancola, who were scheduled to die in the electric chair at Chester soon after midnight.

The lieutenant governor, acting as chief executive while Governor Horner is in Washington, said he granted the week's delay solely on the plea of Giancola's mother.

Governor Horner yesterday refused to grant clemency to Giancola and Mrs. Porter. If the execution is finally carried out, she will be the first woman legally electrocuted in Illinois and the first executed since 1845.

BUSINESS IMPETUS IS ANTICIPATED

WASHINGTON, Jan. 20.—Two-thirds of the country's manufacturers expect an improvement in business some time in 1938. Colby M. Chester, chairman of the National Association of Manufacturers, told senate investigators today.

The chairman of the board of General Foods Corporation said "only a few manufacturers contacted in a cross-section survey thought there would be a turn for the worse."

The survey, directed to forty manufacturers, disclosed an eleven per cent decline in employment between September, 1937, and January 1, 1938, Chester testified. He said this was paced by a sixteen per cent decline in the number of hours worked.

Testifying before the senate unemployment committee, he said some industrialists doubted that business as a whole was in as good position as it had been in 1929 so far as reserves to carry employees is concerned. He said, however, that many believed they could keep employees on without going into their reserves.

"Business can take it on the chin if it knows what the rules are," Chester testified. "We don't like to be penalized without knowing the rules."

He urged cooperation between government, business and labor and an "armistice" in "mud slinging" to end the business recession.

"We are on the verge of the greatest forward movement this country ever saw if we can get capital free to act," Chester added.

He advocated a better living conditions, better housing, wider distribution of the necessities and luxuries of life, steadier work and more security for old age."

GRAND JURY TO INQUIRE ON AD VALOREM PAYMENTS

J. B. "Doc" Greer, county collector, in whose office the ad valorem tax is paid, that is a tax on the sale of merchandise, will be one of the county officers inspected by the grand jury. It is the duty of the grand jury, under the instructions of the circuit court, to make an investigation of this tax with reference to who has paid and who has not paid, and take action accordingly.

MRS. G. H. SCRUTON AND INFANT TO THEIR HOME

Mrs. George H. Scruton returned to her home, 712 West Third street, this afternoon with her new daughter, Judith Jones. Mrs. Scruton had been in Bothwell hospital the past two weeks.

RE-LICENSE THE M. W. OF A. AND K. OF C. IN STATE

Both Fraternal Societies
Indicated In "Satisfactory Condition"

PERMITS REVOKED BY R. E. O'MALLEY

Action of Superintendent
Robertson Approved
By Governor

By The Associated Press.
JEFFERSON CITY, Jan. 20.—Licenses of the Modern Woodmen of America and the Knights of Columbus, which were revoked and suspended respectively in 1936 by R. E. O'Malley, former state superintendent of insurance, were re-issued today by the state insurance department.

George A. S. Robertson, who succeeded O'Malley as superintendent last October, said "after a careful and exhaustive study" he was of the opinion that "both societies are in a satisfactory condition."

Governor Lloyd C. Stark, who had dismissed O'Malley approved Robertson's action in re-licensing the fraternalists.

The Modern Woodmen's permit was revoked July 29, 1936, after O'Malley charged it had "conducted its business fraudulently, had not carried out its contracts in good faith, and had exceeded its powers as provided in its constitution and by-laws, as well as the laws under which it was incorporated."

On Oct. 15, 1936, O'Malley suspended the Knights of Columbus' license for refusing, he said, to permit the state insurance department to make an examination of its books.

Since this action, the two societies have not been able to write new business, but their previously-written contracts remained in force.

Figures Presented
Department records show the M. W. A. had 34,499 outstanding insurance policies with a total business of $45,683,000 as of Dec. 31, 1935, and the K. of C. had 6,306 policies with a total business of $6,944,432 of Dec. 31, 1936.

During O'Malley's stormy administration, he attempted but failed to put stricter regulations on fraternal insurance societies.

Robertson said he re-licensed the societies upon the recommendation of Charles M. Hansen, actuary, and O. R. Jackson, chief examiner in his department, and Ernest Palmer, Illinois commissioner of insurance, and John C. Blackall, Connecticut insurance commissioner. M. W. A. has head offices at Rock Island, Ill., and the Knights of Columbus has its home office at New Haven, Conn.

"In the case of the Knights of Columbus," said Robertson, "its latest financial statement shows the society to be in a satisfactory financial condition, with the annual statement as well as the examination report showing between $7,000,000 and $8,000,000 of surplus."

"The modern Woodmen of America, according to documentary evidence obtained by this department, has made a sincere effort to meet and has met all obligations and requirements made as a result of the last convention examination, held June 30, 1936, participated in by the insurance departments of nine states."

One Pistol Not Fired
In addition to the investigation launched by military authorities, federal bureau of investigation agents were en route from Kansas City to aid.

The provost marshal said a search of the officer's personal effects revealed a .25 caliber pistol but that it had not been fired.

As far as investigating authorities could determine, the officer's only near relative was his invalid mother, Mrs. Elsie McDonald, who lived with him at the Fort.

Lieutenant Colonel McDonald was appointed to West Point from Nebraska by reason of 10 years' military service.

ORDERS REMOVAL OF FASTING DEAN

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Jan. 20.—Bishop James M. Maxon ordered the removal of fasting Dean Israel Harding Noe today.

The bishop recovering from a serious illness, sent a lengthy written communication to the deanery today in which he notified the clergyman he was taking over the duties of St. Mary's Episcopal cathedral.

This step had been urged for several days by some leaders of the church. It came at a time when the dean apparently was getting much weaker.

The dean, fasting to prove the force of immortality, made no immediate comment.

"For the first time, I am well enough x x x to be advised of what has transpired during the past two weeks," Bishop Maxon wrote.

"At the outset I wish to say that I am writing this letter in all kindness and love.

"I regret to advise that it is convincingly evident to me that you must be removed as dean of St. Mary's Cathedral. This removal will take place at once. However, your stipend will continue for the next six months and you will be permitted to occupy the deanery for that period."

GROCERS AGREE TO CLOSE ON SUNDAYS

Sedalia grocers signed a "gentlemen's agreement" to close their stores on Sunday at the regular meeting of the Retail Grocers Association at the Hotel Bothwell Wednesday night.

The grocers association has discussed the matter before and at the meeting. Prosecuting Attorney L. J. Harned and Fred Wesner, attorney, were present.

Both attorneys agreed that the practice of opening the stores on Sunday violated a state statute, therefore the grocers signed the agreement.

According to Charles Solon, president of the association, thirty grocers have been opening Sundays but last week few, if any, were open.

FIND OFFICER AT FT. LEAVENWORTH SHOT TO DEATH

Body of Lieut. Col. McDonald Discovered By WPA Worker

By The Associated Press.
LEAVENWORTH, Kas., Jan. 20.—Lieut. Col. Dale F. McDonald, 51, commanding officer of the 3rd battalion of the 17th infantry at Fort Leavenworth, was found shot to death early today along a little used road on the Fort reservation.

Military authorities launched an immediate investigation to determine whether the officer had been slain. He was last seen by friends last night at about 5:30 as he left his quarters and drove away after first asking the maid when dinner would be ready.

Colvin Seely, a PWA worker, reported to military police that he saw the body beside the road as he walked along the highway at 6:20 a. m. He told Provost Marshal F. R. Lafferty, conducting the investigation, he thought he heard groans and that the man might be drunk. McDonald was dead when military police found him a short time later.

Provost Marshal Lafferty said the army officers body was about 20 feet from his parked automobile. He said a .45 army pistol was under the body but he had not determined immediately if it had been fired. He said the ground under the car and under the body was dry. It rained here about 7 p. m. last night.

Lieut. Paul Kiser of the medical corps reserve who conducted an autopsy, said death was caused by a bullet which entered the rear of Lieut. Col. McDonald's head slightly to the right of center and emerged about two inches above the left eye.

In addition to the investigation launched by military authorities, federal bureau of investigation agents were en route from Kansas City to aid.

The provost marshal said a search of the officer's personal effects revealed a .25 caliber pistol but that it had not been fired.

As far as investigating authorities could determine, the officer's only near relative was his invalid mother, Mrs. Elsie McDonald, who lived with him at the Fort.

Lieutenant Colonel McDonald was appointed to West Point from Nebraska by reason of 10 years' military service.

Guests were A. A. Ferguson with Guy T. Callender; and J. W. McNally, with Phillip McLaughlin.

CHAUTEMPS COMES BACK

Camille Chautemps resigned as premier of France last Thursday. Next day he declined an invitation to form a new cabinet. But now, after Edouard Daladier had also declined, and Georges Bonnet and Leon Blum had tried but failed, Chautemps appears again as premier with a reshuffled cabinet. So the French have solved another ministerial crisis in their own peculiar fashion.

The new Chautemps cabinet differs from its predecessor in that it contains no Socialists, and in that 18 of its 20 posts are held by members of the premier's own party, the Radical Socialists. A shadow of the People's Front, states the Post-Dispatch of St. Louis, is preserved, however, in the Socialists' pledge of support, but the Communists withhold decision for the time being. To replace Communist support, two minor parties have promised Chautemps their votes. This will give his cabinet a total of 311 votes in a chamber of 618 members, a precarious margin of two.

This tiny majority and the weakening of the People's Front are not favorable signs for French stability. Chautemps will be a miracle if, in these circumstances, he can solve his country's labor and financial problems, stand off the Fascist threat and protect France's position in the international arena.

CHINA FOR THE JAPANESE

The Newspaper Service Bureau reports that Japan threatens to oust foreigners from their concessions in Tientsin. "It is beginning to be plain that practically all established foreign business operating in China will be forced out as they were in Manchukuo."

China for the Japanese is Tokyo's policy whatever may be said to the contrary. Japan has learned that it can do as it pleases in China without causing more than diplomatic protests. It understands the situation in the Orient and is pressing its advantages.

After 25, a decrease of 1 per cent per year occurs in man's learning ability, psychologists say.

The Amazon river and its tributaries constitute the greatest inland water system in the world.

Approximately 1,100 trucks of five-ton capacity would be required to carry as much coal as a hundred-car freight train.

Gasoline has 10 times the explosive power of dynamite, Dr. George G. Brown of the University of Michigan has found.

German batteries dropped 303 shells into Paris and its suburbs during the world war, causing the death of 256 persons.

Four 1938 holidays will be celebrated on Monday—Memorial day, Fourth of July, Labor day and Christmas. (December 25 falls on Sunday).

Pure white paint, contrary to popular belief, was seldom used in colonial days. The most popular color in New England was made from a mixture of red lead and lampblack.

The original papers for impeachment of President Andrew Johnson, misplaced for 70 years, have been found in the archives of the U. S. house of representatives in Washington.

SCRAP IRON, WAR BAROMETER

From St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

Baltimore longshoremen who predicted a war in the Far East before it began are now betting there will soon be a European war. A few months ago there was a heavy movement of scrap iron to the Orient. Some railroads could not get enough cars to move all of the scrap metal and were forced to place a temporary embargo on such shipments. Now, as the sale of scrap iron to Japan and neighboring nations declines, there is a sharp rise in shipment to European nations. England is the largest buyer, but Italy and Poland are also buying heavily.

The drop in Japanese buying, of course, does not indicate that the war in China is drawing to a close. Rather it suggests that Japan now has in its possession all of the scrap iron and steel it needs for armaments to be used in a long drawn-out war. But the longshoremen believe, and their guess as to a conflict in the Far East proved to be correct, that the increasing flow of metal to Europe means that will be the place where the next war will start.

Probably they know as much about this matter as close students of international affairs. And one thing is certain. The heavy shipments of scrap metal are not to be used in making peace treaties.

WORLD'S ARMAMENT BILL

From New Orleans Times-Picayune.

The League's yearbook on armaments, estimates the world's total outlay for armaments during the year 1937 at 11,857 million dollars—three times as much as in 1913, the year before the Armageddon. Standing armies this year muster 8½ million men as compared with their paper strength of 6 million in 1913. Of the 1937 armaments outlay, the nations of Europe spent 7,682 million dollars, or 65 per cent. The figures, it is explained, do not include expenditures for semimilitary purposes such as strategic roads, airports, etc. They are based upon returns from sixty-four nations, but since it is admitted a virtual impossibility to obtain complete or completely accurate details from certain of the governments, the actual total outlay almost certainly exceeded the yearbook estimate, and probably approximated 12 billion dollars.

In 1932 the world outlay for armaments slightly exceeded 7 billions. In 1935 it passed the 9-billion-dollar level. Its rate of growth has been speeded up since and there is reason to believe, or to fear, that its climb to higher and higher records will be continued until another world conflict ensues or financial collapses halt the armaments buildup.

The U. S. government sold 75 old ships during 1937 for a total of $3,903,976.

WASHINGTON—Don't be at all surprised if the three U. S. cruisers sent to Singapore, for the February opening of the giant British naval base, do not return to the United States.

It has not been definitely decided yet, but they probably will remain in Oriental waters—presumably near Singapore—for some time to come. Also, the 10,000-ton cruiser Louisville, which is accompanying them to Australia, may proceed north to Singapore and remain there.

All this is in line with Roosevelt's Far Eastern strategy, previously disclosed in this column, of closer cooperation with the British. It is one of the most important of all Administration policies.

French Naval Base

Furthermore, it will cause no surprise if another squadron of U. S. cruisers should visit the new French naval base at Point Saint-Jacques in French Indo-China. This is equipped with large drydocks, and will be one of the most important naval stations in the Far East when completed, which will be soon.

How far in advance Roosevelt envisaged the present Chinese-Japanese crisis can be gathered from his conversations with Edouard Herriot, ex-Premier of France, back in April of 1933. Herriot had come over to discuss preparations for the London Economic Conference, but Roosevelt spent part of the time inquiring about French naval plans in the Orient. One question he asked was how soon Saigon (chief port of Indo-China) could be developed for a large naval unit.

Herriot replied that it was not being developed but that Point Saint-Jacques was, and thereupon invited the use of the French naval base by U. S. warships.

Buzzy Dall

Mrs. Roosevelt has brought back from Seattle a new story about Buzzy, her lively 8-year-old grandson.

Several weeks after Buzzy entered school in Seattle, a young neighbor told his mother:

"There is a new boy in our class. His name is Buzzy Dall. I like him very much, but you know I don't think he is very truthful. Why, he told me he has fed live bears out of his hand and his grandfather is President of the United States."

Note—Accompanying his grandfather, the President, through Yellowstone Park last fall, Buzzy did feed cookies to the bears along the road.

Labor Row

Keep an eye on that secret plan of Alexander F. Whitney, president of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, for peace between the A. F. of L. and the C. I. O. It offers a real solution of the controversy and you will hear a lot more about it.

The brotherhoods, affiliated with neither AFL nor CIO, would act as the balance wheel between the two. Each would be independent and autonomous in its own sphere, yet united through the bond of the Council.

In addition to its practicality, there is another potent factor favoring Whitney's plan. It comes from an independent quarter on good terms with both battle fronts.

Tit For Tat

The scramble for the Democratic nomination for Governor of New York is warming up.

The other day the Young Democrats of New York City invited U. S. Assistant Attorney General Robert Jackson, the President's choice, to address their annual banquet on February 25. Jackson accepted and the Young Democrats started preparations for a big state political rally.

At once New York State Attorney General John Bennett, long a gubernatorial aspirant, got busy with a rival show. Through friendly old-line Brooklyn leaders, Bennett arranged to have a testimonial dinner given in his honor on the same night Jackson is scheduled to address the Young Democrats.

Note—A dark-horse aspirant for the nomination is Adolf Berle, former Roosevelt brain-truster and intimate friend of Rex Tugwell and Mayor Fiorello La Guardia. No hint of Berle's candidacy has yet been made public, but he is the secret La Guardia-Brain Trust choice.

INFLAMED LEG VEIN
APT TO BE PHLEBITIS

I am asked to discuss the subject of phlebitis, particularly the wandering form.

Phlebitis means literally the inflammation of a vein. In the common form it is the inflammation of one of the large veins of the leg, usually one-sided. Appendicitis is a common cause. In fact, any infection inside the abdomen may rest on the large vein which carries all the blood from the leg and produce a clot inside of it. This, of course, embarrasses the return circulation and the leg swells up and is painful. It is often called "white leg" or "milk leg."

Under rest and elevation of the leg it always heals up with the formation of a clot inside. Collateral circulation takes care of the return of blood from the leg. Collateral circulation means practically a detour of blood. A person who has once had phlebitis of this kind, however, is always subject to swelling in the leg when ever an extra amount of walking or running is indulged in.

Occurs In Men

Another form of phlebitis occurs in middle-aged men, especially, and there is a form of hardening of the veins which is very much like hardening of the arteries. This also is likely to be more troublesome in the legs than any where else, causing pain, painful spots and swelling.

Wandering phlebitis is likely to superimpose itself on this form. A typical case of this kind was a man, aged 50, who developed pain in the calf of the right leg. This was slow to mend and a lump was found there which was identified with the vein, and this was cut out surgically. Later he had a similar occurrence in the vein of the forearm and later some abdominal symptoms which were probably due to an involvement of a vein in the stomach. All of these eventually got well, and this is the experience with nearly everyone who has had the condition, but it is very stubborn and may run a course of three or four years.

QUESTIONS FROM READERS
P. S. V.: "Please inform me what treatment can be taken for running ears."

Answer: Running ears, especially in children, should be treated immediately. Sometimes they can be cured by removal of infect adenoids. Under any circumstance they are sufficiently serious that life insurance companies do not accept applicants with this condition.

A. O.: "I would like to ask a few questions about whooping cough. How long does it last after a child starts coughing? Is it possible to have such a mild case that the child will only whoop once or twice?"

Answer: Whooping cough is usually divided into three periods which last from one to three weeks apiece. Mild cases such as you describe occur.

Mrs. F. E. P.: "If there is any cure for tetter, a skin disease of the hands, please let me know what it is."

Answer: Tetter is not recognized as a special disease. It may be eczema, or ringworm, or many different forms of dermatitis due to irritation. All doctors are familiar with the condition and can advise as to proper treatment.

Got a Sense of Humor?

Perhaps you have. I would not know.

Perhaps you just think you have. It may be that your sense of humor hasn't been tested. When it is, you'll find out soon enough whether it's the real thing—or skim milk that masquerades as cream.

For a sense of humor isn't just a light-hearted companion for days of fortune; it is armor, it is courage, it's the re-enforcing steel of the character with which you face the world.

And maybe you've got a sense of humor and maybe you haven't. I'm not so certain about myself either. Once or twice I've thought I had one. Once a traffic officer bawled me out and right in the middle of my lecture I heard myself laughing inside—at him, red-faced and angry; at me, meek and taking it on the chin like a docile citizen.

There was another time when I was furious and thought of having a man arrested. But I didn't. At the last moment everything seemed funny, and I knew how ridiculous the whole thing was; how laughable it would be for me to swear out a warrant and bring another man into court on a trivial charge because he'd done me a small injury and hurt my pride of ownership. So I didn't do it. And so for a few days I was proud of myself and went around praising Me because I had a sense of humor.

But I'm not so confident that I possess a Sense of Humor. If I did have one, I wouldn't let life get me down. I'd laugh at gloom, I'd chuckle at fate, I'd smile more at the nagging irritations of life.

So would you. So do you, if you have a true Sense of Humor. Because, if I know anything at all, I'm sure that a Sense of Humor isn't just laughing at jokes, telling funny stories, being a Good Fellow.

It's deeper and stronger. It's seeing life clearly. It is walking lightly, but steadily, through life and seeing things just about as they are. It's life seriously, but not taking it mournfully. It's having a true sense of proportion about ourselves, about other people.

If you have that precious quality within you, then you have a Sense of Humor. But if you have it, you'll not boast about it. You couldn't, because, if you did—you wouldn't have it. It would fly away from you. Because the world is so big and life so broad that anyone looks ridiculous when he insists that he knows all about it.

Do you still think you have a Sense of Humor? . . . Wait until you need one.

THE RETORT

Old Birch, who taught the village school,
Wedded a maid of homespun habit;
He was as stubborn as a mule,
And she as playful as a rabbit.

Foor Kate had scarce become a wife
Before her husband sought to make her
The ping of country-polished life,
And prim and formal as a Quaker.

One day the tutor went abroad,
And simple Katie sadly missed him;
When he returned, behind her lord
She shyly stole, and fondly kissed him.

The husband's anger rose, and red
And white his face alternate grew;

"Less freedom, ma'am!" Kate sighed and said,
"O, dear! I didn't know 'twas you!"

Richest Girl in the World

BY ADELAIDE HUMPHRIES

CAST OF CHARACTERS
CONSTANCE CORBY—heroine; richest girl in the world.
BRET, HER BOYFRIEND—hero; bridge builder.
RODNEY BRANDON—Connie's fiancé.
KATIE BLYN—Connie's "double."

Yesterday, Bret accepts Connie's explanation about the jewels they were her mother's. And that night Connie has her precious hour before she is to tell Bret really who she is.

CHAPTER XII

CONNIE had "her hour" for a little while. Her lovely, secret romance. Each day she told herself that the time must come when she would tell Bret the truth about herself. But each day wore on into the next, with her courage somehow failing her, her decision wavering.

Bret's bridge rose and expanded and spread; so that soon it would be a creation completed in steel and stone, as well as in a man's mind. So different was this life to Connie, so complete her happiness and contentment, that afterwards she was to wonder if it really had been, if perhaps, she had not really been someone else, during those fleeting months, that were over and done, all too soon.

The first faint breath of spring descended into the low valley, warming the little sleepy village into a new activity, awakening the somber dark hills, brushing the tips of the gray trees. Wild things ventured out to sun themselves, to water at the springs; birds twittered and trilled and began to look about for a place for their home-making. And Bret insisted Connie wear high-topped boots for fear she might come across a rattler or copper-head during their walks.

"I'll make a hill-billy of you, yet," he told her jokingly. He was very gay these days, was Bret. Gay and masterful and tender.

"When are you going to make up your mind to marry me, like a sensible girl?" This was another thing that Bret said, more than once. "I can't see why we shouldn't get married right away. Except for me—to wait until the bridge is done. You see, I've adopted his bantering tone, 'I don't want to let you take my mind completely off my work.'"

Connie said she wished she could. But she did not mean it. His bridge had become as important to her as to him. According to the contract it must be finished within another month. With luck, it would be. Just as—with luck again—she might have that much longer as Katie Blyn.

She told him, laughingly, that she wouldn't give him his answer until that time. "When your bridge is finished," she said, "then I'll be sensible and make up my mind. We'll decide about being married."

That made postponement easier, more acceptable. When Bret's bridge was done Connie must tell him who she was, as well as when she would marry him.

SHE was not to be allowed that postponement, however. Perhaps Fate, if there is such a lady, had decided that she had been kind long enough.

That following Saturday Eloise and Connie, in Bret's car, went shopping together. They had driven over to a nearby town, a larger one where the stores could more satisfactorily meet their demands. Their purchases had been completed, they had even indulged in a fancy sundae at the elegant marble soda fountain, when Eloise stopped suddenly in the street.

"Oh," she exclaimed, "I forgot—I'll have to go back. I promised I'd bring home a Charleston paper. Bret will be disappointed, and Mother will never forgive me, unless I do. You go on to the car, Katie, and I'll be with you in a minute."

"Take your time," Connie laughed. Eloise had appeared as distressed as though she had committed a sizeable offense. Connie and Eloise were close friends now. They had had many happy hours together, chatting as only two young girls can of everything under the sun and above it; they had, indeed, become like "sisters." They chatted now, driving home again, of the latest fashions, as predicted in the store windows, how ridiculous the spring millinery was going to be with its tower-like crowns, profusion of feminine flowers and feathers and bows—

yet how altogether delightful—as to whether Mrs. Parsons would be pleased with the luncheon set Connie had bought as a special surprise, whether or not Eloise should ever decide the momentous question as to bobbing her hair. Not until they started to unload the car before the brick house did Connie notice the headlines and the picture on the page one of the Charleston paper that Eloise had bought.

Two pictures to be exact. A portrait study of herself that she had had made for Rodney just before the announcement of their engagement, and another, looking somehow like that same girl, yet somehow different—the girl in Connie's polo coat, the girl who was the real Katie Blyn.

"ARE THESE TWO GIRLS THE SAME?" the headline queried. "It is rumored that Constance Corby, richest girl in the world, may be in hiding. It is possible," the story continued, "that some other girl has been taking her place on board her million dollar yacht." Rodney Brandon, when interviewed, asserted this girl, supposedly Miss Corby, is not his fiancée.

"What's the matter?" Eloise asked.

"The matter?" Connie looked up from the paper. She tried to make her voice sound natural. But it shook a little. "N-nothing . . . nothing," she said.

EVERYTHING, everything, she meant. She knew that this was the end of this girl who stood here, shaken, troubled, carefully refolding the paper again: the end of this Katie Blyn. She knew she would have to go back, become Constance Corby once more.

IRWIN RAUT IS SPEAKER AT S. C. P. T. A. MEETING

Appeals To Parents and Teachers To Guide Sedalia Youths

Irwin Raut, secretary of the Boys' Work Council in Sedalia, discussed "Sedalia and Her Problems of Delinquency" at the Smith-Cotton P. T. A. meeting, Wednesday night in the auditorium.

In his talk, Mr. Raut asserted that no parent can have success with his boy or girl unless the parent puts himself out for his son or daughter.

Mr. Raut said that an average boy who quit at the eighth grade will make as much money at the age of twenty-two as he ever will earn during his life. The boy who goes through high school and then starts in working will probably be making as much as he ever will at the age of thirty or thirty-two years. But the boy who completes high school and then takes some business course or a college course has a chance to improve in his occupation and make more money up to the age of forty to forty-five years of age.

Teacher May Aid
He assured the P. T. A. that the teacher can help a boy plan his future occupation by talking with him.

Mr. Raut said there were many out of work. He is trying to find places where these boys and students can spend a recreational evening.

He voiced that there were many bad things in Sedalia as well as good. He stated that eighteen boys in Sedalia were in reform schools. Fifty-five men from Sedalia have been and are in the state prison; $20,000 a year is used in Sedalia for criminal costs.

men to help Mr. Raut with various problems in Sedalia. One of the four works in the west section of Sedalia, one in the south, one in the east, and one in the north.

They help locate boys who are out of work and then try to get them jobs here in town. Mr. Raut contended that they were also trying to get paroles for the boys who are in reform schools.

Most boys that they are working with are not boys with the highest mentality, but they find something that interests the boy and there they try to gain the boy's attention by encouraging him in this interest.

Mr. Raut professed that most of these boys need just a little encouragement and personal attention in the homes; that most of the boys in reform schools today come from homes where the mother and father are divorced, separated, or death has occurred to his parents; others had had no more than third or fourth grade education; the majority of these unfortunate boys had had no religious training whatsoever.

Parents Can Help
"I believe," he cited, "that the mothers have the opportunities with training the boys for the first five years of his life; that the father has more chance of losing his boy's confidence from the age of six to twelve.

In closing his address, Irving Raut thanked the board of education for their help in cooperation with him and also thanked various churches for extending the church basements for recreational purposes to boys.

Preceding the talk there was a musical program prepared by the high school music department as follows:

Violin solo "Adoration" by Borowski-Hazel Colvin. Miss Colvin was accompanied on the piano by Mrs. A. R. Beach.

Vocal solos "In A Persian Garden" by Lehmann and "Rose In The Bud" by Dorothy Foster-Frank Gross. The accompanist was Mrs. Beach.

Piano solo "Claire De Lune" by Claude Debussy—Winifred Halter. During the business meeting it was announced that more students are being served this year in the lunch room at the high school than last year.

INCREASE OF 7,500 ON WPA ROLLS

By The Associated Press.
JEFFERSON CITY, Jan. 20.—An increase of 7,500 persons on the WPA rolls in Missouri during the last month was ascribed today by Matthew S. Murray, state administrator, to the effects of the current recession in business.

"There's no question but that the demand for additional jobs has been created by business conditions," Murray said. He added, however, the WPA rolls could not be regarded as an accurate criterion to determine unemployment trends.

Latest figures in Murray's office showed there were 57,183 on the WPA rolls, as compared with 49,600 the middle of December. The increase in the rolls has been largely centered in the heavy-populated areas, Murray said.

The administrator said there were 19,920 on the rolls in St. Louis, 7,881 in Kansas City, 2,411 in Greene county, 2,297 in Jasper county, and 1,973 in Buchanan county.

Despite the apparent increase in unemployment in Missouri, Murray said, 1,700 WPA workers left the rolls during the last month to re-enter private employment.

"I've put all to work who have been certified to me by the social security commission, and I don't plan to turn down anyone who needs a job," Murray said before departing for St. Louis today to look over the situation there.

The WPA rolls hit their peak in Missouri in November, 1935, when 102,700 persons, including

FOURTEEN different times the news headlines have flashed: RALPH GREENLEAF WINS WORLD'S CHAMPIONSHIP.

In a special interview during his recent championship play in Philadelphia, Ralph said: "I'd say the most important rule in this game is to have healthy nerves. And on that score, I think, Camels have a lot extra to offer. One of the main reasons why I've stuck to Camel cigarettes for twenty years is—they don't ruffle my nerves."

And America as a nation shows the same preference for finer tobaccos that Ralph Greenleaf does! Camels are the largest-selling cigarette in America

Fencing experts, too, appreciate Camel's finer tobaccos. As BELA DE TUSCAN, the famous instructor, says: "Fencing is very tiring, and I welcome the quick 'lift' I get with a Camel."

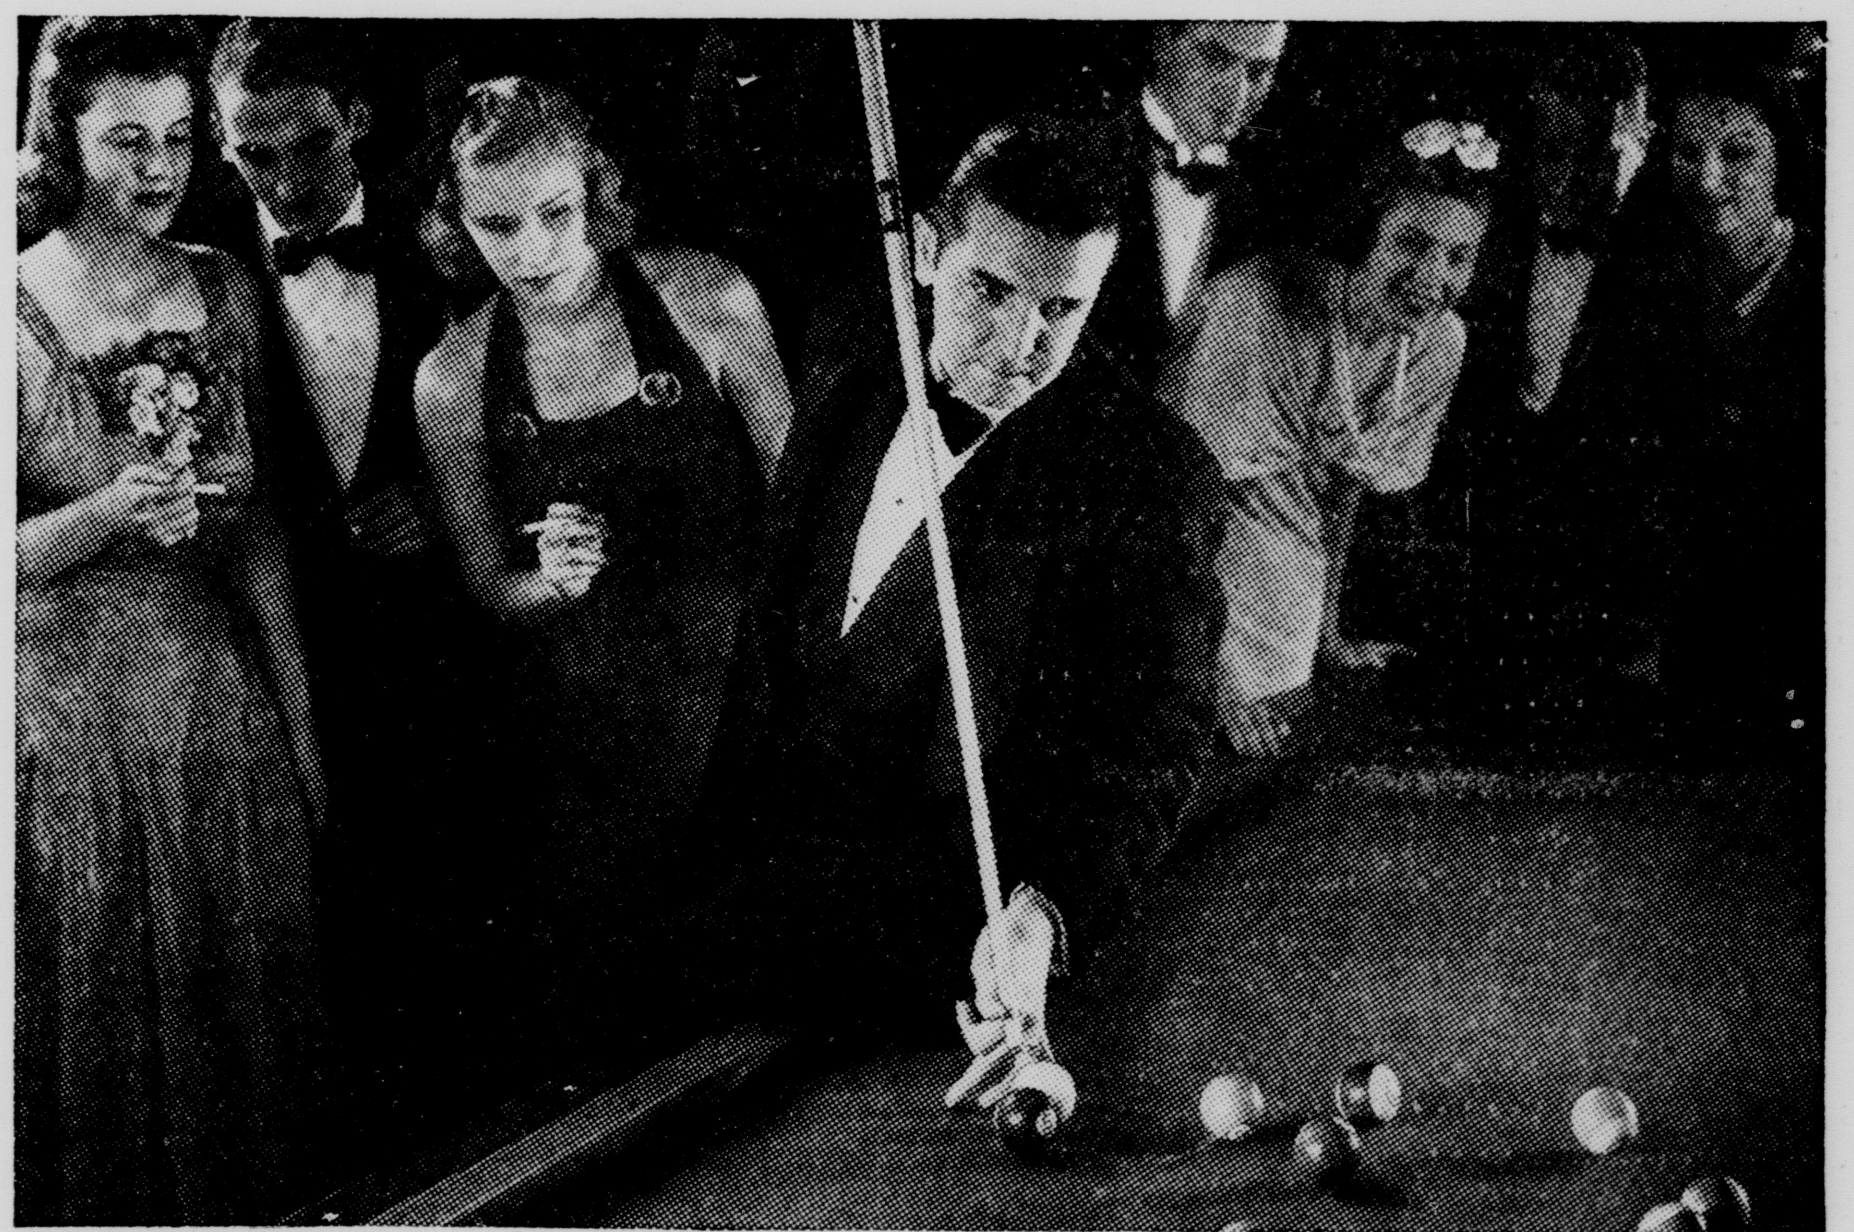

"The way these light boats bounce around knocks the daylight out of my digestion! Camels help my digestion to keep on an even keel," says MULFORD SCULL, outboard motorboat racer.

JAMES L. CLARK, famous scientist and explorer, says: "I always carry plenty of Camels with me into the wilderness. 'I'd walk a mile for a Camel!' Many's the time I've done it."

HELEN HOWARD, top-flight spring-board diver, of Miami, Florida, says: "Camels don't irritate my throat—not even when I'm sitting around in a wet suit, a target for irritation."

HE IS COUNTED THE GREATEST POCKET-BILLIARD PLAYER OF ALL TIME. Here Greenleaf executes a difficult massé shot, requiring split-hair accuracy, faultless stroking, and healthy nerves. And the world's two famous masters of the cue—champion Ralph Greenleaf and the 18.1 balkline billiard champion, Willie Hoppe—are both Camel smokers.

Last Before Tournament

Although only thirteen bouts have been matched up until noon today there will be fourteen and probably fifteen bouts seen at the last "trial bouts" of Golden Glove amateur boxers before entering into the final tournament which is to be sponsored by the Sedalia Democrat-Capital.

Joseph Ordway, coach and trainer of those boys who have entered from Sedalia, this morning said he expected to see some of the best bouts of this fall when the local leather pushers meet the Columbia team.

Jack Crangle, Golden Glove manager of the Columbia district, notified Ordway to have good fighters to meet his boys as he felt the Columbia team might be too strong for the Sedalians. However, the Sedalia coach is not worried over Mr. Crangle's statement, as his victory over the Kansas City four boxers last week has instilled into the Sedalians plenty of confidence.

The Golden Glove enrollment is increasing with each night's workout with three more entries being received Wednesday night, and one this morning. It is expected before the first preliminary bouts are held there will be not less than sixty boxers ready to see action in the "square ring."

Are Anxious To Enter

Inquiries have been received from several boxers at Marshall, who are students in the Missouri Valley college, all of whom are anxious to enter and get a trip to the Tournament of Champions in Kansas City.

The boys who are entered in the Golden Gloves can call at the pass gate and be admitted to the bouts tonight as guests of Coach Ordway and D. K. Scruton, sports editor.

Tickets for the bouts can be obtained at the Pacific Cafe, Frank Hugelmann's, Joe Chasnov's Drugstore and the Sedalia-Democrat office until 5:30 o'clock this evening.

The doors at Convention hall will be opened at 7:15 o'clock.

HOLDOUT SEASON IS BEING NEARED

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla., Jan. 20.—The holdout season won't open officially until spring training gets under way, but there are enough dissatisfied players in Florida alone to give baseball club officials plenty to worry about.

Even Dizzy Dean's perennial salary troubles can't top the complaints of Joe Medwick, Van Lingle Mungo, Paul Waner and Paul Derringer.

American league teams are in for some argument, too. Wes Ferrell, Washington pitcher who winters at Sarasota, objected to a $30,000 salary cut. Russell Van Atta, spending the off-season here, returned his contract to the St. Louis Browns unsigned.

Dean's situation is unique, for him. Usually he demands a raise. But after his mediocre showing in 1937 "Ole Diz" admitted himself a reduction was in order. But the $10,000 pay check St. Louis offered almost floored the pitcher. He said it represented $15,500 slash. Dizzy stopped pumping gas at his Bradenton filling station to say he thought $17,500 would be about the right price.

At Sarasota, Waner intimated he thought the contract Pittsburgh sent him was more in line for a "two-for-a-nickel bum" than for one of the leading left-handed hitters in the league.

The center of most of the trade discussions this winter, Mungo has heard nothing definite from the Brooklyn Dodgers. The fireball pitcher said he "rather expected a raise" and indicated there would be a big kick if the club offered less than the $15,000 he was reported to have been paid last season.

Medwick, fishing and golfing here, fired his contract right back at the Cardinals with the statement a proffered raise was not enough. The leading batter and "most valuable" player in the National league did not divulge the amount offered or the salary he wanted.

Cincinnati is believed to have offered Derringer $7,500. The pitcher said at Sarasota he would

GOLF VICTORY ENRICH "OLE DIZ"

SARASOTA, Fla., Jan. 20.—(P)—Dizzy Dean said winning the third annual baseball players golf tournament opening here today would make him $20,000 richer.

He said he had laid a $1,000 bet, at 20 to 1, he could capture the match play event.

Those knowing the links ability of the various baseball stars wintering in Florida were inclined to think "Ole Diz" would have to play over his head to defeat such golfers as Garland Braxton of Indianapolis, Paul Waner of Pittsburgh, Paul Derringer of Cincinnati and Wes Ferrell of Washington. They finished in that order last year behind Sam Byrd, who since has turned professional.

After two 18-hole qualifying rounds today and tomorrow, the 30 or more players entered will meet in match play Saturday and Sunday.

The winner receives the Powell Crosby trophy, emblematic of the professional baseball players championship.

CHEMISTS LOSE 44 TO 43 AT OSCEOLA

The American Disinfecting Co., "Chemists" last night thought they had a fairly easy game with Osceola. Upon arrival there the boys were very much surprised to find such stars as Jack Neuburgie, an all conference guard with Warrensburg Teachers last year, Bob Weaver, another Warrensburg star, Uhle Snider, who formerly played with the Missouri Public Service of Clinton, Ryan and Casey of the Stockton Athletic Club.

For the first half the Adco boys played the best game they have played this year and led 25 to 17. After the half the "Chemists" continued their fine play until the fourth quarter, at which time they had a ten point lead, when they began to tire. However, the Sedalians still led with just four minutes to play, but Uhle Snider got a loose ball and dribbled under the basket to knot the count. Then Neuburgie sank a free throw to win the game 44 to 43.

For the "Chemists" Manager "Bunny" Taylor was the big gun, scoring 17 points. Bob Taylor also played a nice game, scoring 12 points.

Weaver was high scorer for Osceola with 18 points, while Neuburgie had 13. These two gave the Sedalians plenty of trouble.

The game was played in Osceola's new gym recently completed and was one of the first basketball games played on the new court.

The score:

Chemists—43	FG	FT	F
M. Taylor, f.	7	3	2

THE SPORTS ROUNDUP

BY EDDIE BRIETZ

NEW YORK, Jan. 20. — If "Jumping Jackie" Hunt, 176-pound halfback sensation at Huntington high down in West Virginia really is ticketed for Notre Dame, how come a certain well known West Virginia college coach has taken out a $10,000 life insurance policy on the lad's life?.....What do you make of that, Watson?.....More than 83,000 fans—a bumper crop—have witnessed the first half of the college basketball season in Madison Square Garden..... Gunnar Barlund, the Finn, who likes it plenty cold, has gone to Lake George to get ready for Buddy Baer.

Ouch Dept: Earl Whitehill, Cleveland southpaw has learned it pays to read the papers.....He drove all the way from Iowa through the snow to Cleveland to discuss his 1938 contract with C. C. Slapnicka, vice president of the Indians.....When he rolled into town he discovered Slapnicka was in Florida for his health.....General opinion around town is Enrico Venturi owes the New York State Athletic Commission a vote of thanks.....His hundreds of pals said good-bye to Eddie Neil yesterday.....If you get too good for this world, up you go, to a better one.

Joe Di Maggio looks swell and feels the same way.....That stuff about him going to demand $35,000 from the Yanks is strictly the old mahoskus, as they say on W. 49th St.....If Joe can settle for $22,500 he'll be plumb tickled.....Tom Sweeney, smart young sports scrivener on the Worcester (Mass.) Evening Gazette, tennis, basketball and golf as the most honest sports..... Hockey gets second place and boxing third.....Three guesses as to which sport wound up in the cellar.....(It starts with a "W").....The Miami spots are going full blast and trade is picking up.

Larry MacPhail won the Metropolitan wise-cracking championship in his first start.....At the press conference inaugurating his appointment as executive vice-president of the Dodgers someone remarked, "well, it looks like the dawn of a new era." Said Larry: "We've had too many eras (errors) already".....Davidson college in North Carolina claims the smallest basketball forward in the country in Johnny Tice, who stands only five feet, four and weighs just 135.....We're going to string with the minority and pick Braddock to outpoint Farr.

DETROIT ANXIOUS FOR BIG FIGHT

DETROIT, Jan. 20.—(P)—The motor city, home of the world's heavyweight champion and one of the best sport centers in the world, looked forward today to staging the Joe Louis-Schmeling title fight next June.

Barring a hitch in plans—and boxing observers said there was little likelihood of that—the sloe-eyed negro and the German schliager, his knockout conqueror of 1936, will square off in the Detroit Tiger ball park.

Frank MacDonell, Michigan boxing commissioner said "I'm certain the fight will be here, but I can't discuss details now."

John Roxborough, co-manager of Louis, was in New York conferring with Mike Jacobs, who holds a contract for the championship's services, and the two reportedly were to agree on Detroit for the fight.

Detroit, a city of 1,700,000, is the center of a 10,000,000 population area embracing Chicago, Toledo, Buffalo and Toronto and a Buffalo's train ride from New York, Philadelphia and Boston.

Feller Wants His Contract Adjusted

VAN METTER, Iowa, Jan. 20.—(P)—Bob Feller doesn't rate as a full fledged holdout, but the young fastball hurler wants the Cleveland Indians to make a "minor adjustment" in the contract offered for 1938.

Feller, at the farm home of his parents, said last night that he had returned his contract unsigned, did not consider himself a holdout and did not expect any trouble reaching an agreement with the Indians. He said he was satisfied with the salary offered, said by friends to be $17,500, but also wanted a satisfactory bonus clause providing for additional compensation on the basis of victories.

Feller was understood to have received $15,000 last season. The strapping right-hander was offered a bonus arrangement, but said it was not what he wanted. He did not elaborate.

Feller participated in 26 games last season after getting off to a delayed start because of an ailment in his pitching arm. He recorded an earned run average of 3.38 and 150 strikeouts.

JOE LOUIS HOPES BRADDOCK WILL DEFEAT FARR

Gets More Attention at Training Camp Than DiMaggio

BY GAYLE TALBOT

NEW YORK, Jan. 30.—Big a man as Joe Di Maggio undeniably is, and however many home runs he might hit next season for the youth of America, he still lacks the lustre of Joe Louis, the heavy-weight boxing champion. There's something about a man who, presumably, can lick any other man in the world with his fists.

The two of them were out at Pompton Lakes, N. J., yesterday, watching the oldtimer, Jim Braddock, put the finishing touches on his training for Friday night's 10-round engagement at the Garden with Tommy Farr, the brash Welshman. Di Maggio, the champion, home-run hitter, was just another spectator. Louis, who cracks strong men one punch and leaves them lying there, was surrounded.

Looking big as a skinned mule in the coonskin cap and heavy clothes that protected him from the near-zero weather, Louis sat and answered fairly intelligently a hundred questions tossed at him. Dozens crowded up to shake the young Negro's hand. Di Maggio, watching it, must have felt a complete outsider. Nobody asked him anything.

Braddock boxed six rounds as hard as he could go, and looked good outside of occasional wild swings with his right. He said, referring to Friday night's scrap: "I'll be in there swinging them." But what everybody wanted to know was: Who did Louis think would win?

Like To See Braddock Win

Joe, who is learning the art of speech rapidly these days, didn't say. It was easy to detect, though, that the champion would like to see Braddock knock Farr bow-legged. He doesn't like the voluble Welshman very much.

"If there's a knockout, Braddock ought to land it," said Joe, watching the ex-champ get around. "He can hit. He knocked me down out to Chicago, didn't he? And he stood up and fought me. Farr can't hit hard enough to hurt."

Someone suggested that Farr, after all, had proved that he could take plenty of punching when he stood up to Louis for 15 rounds at the Yankee stadium—that he must be tough.

"I don't know," the brown boy demurred. "I didn't hit him with a right like I hit Braddock. All I did was jab him with a left, and when I caught him with a good left hook once or twice I couldn't follow it up. I broke two knuckles on my right hand in the third round, when I hit him on the head, and it wasn't any use to me after that."

Louis' audience was somewhat impressed, and it was predicted that the current 8 to 5 odds on Farr to win Friday night would be reduced before fight time.

"If I am going to fight the two of them again, I would take Braddock more serious," said Louis. "He can go 10 rounds, all right, and he's dangerous until he's on the canvas."

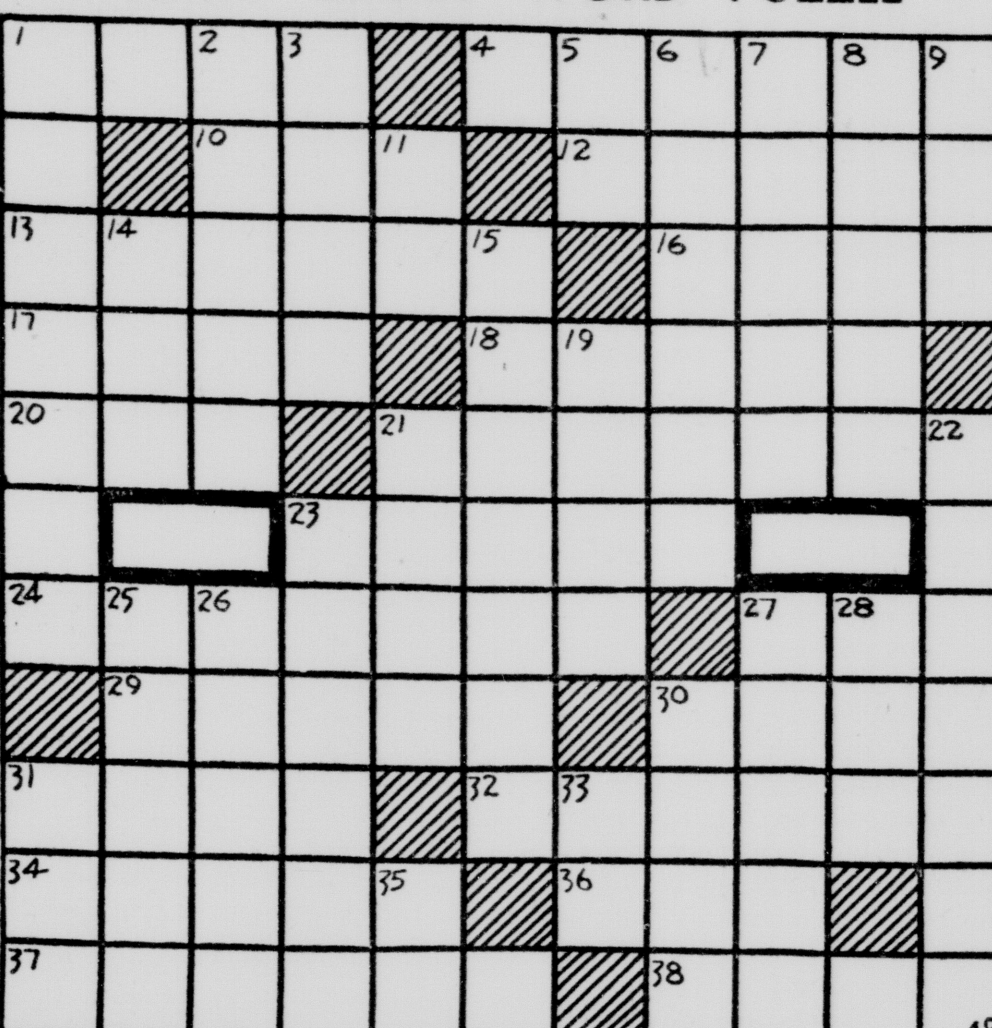

Braddock was finishing his training with a bit of road work today, and Louis was moving into his bedroom at Pompton Lakes to start serious training for his bout with Nathan Mann here on Feb. 23. It will be the first of three scheduled tune-up fights for the champion before he meets Max Schmeling next summer, probably at Chicago.

YOUNG TERRY QUILTS RING

TRENTON, N. J., Jan. 20.—(P)—Young Terry, veteran Trenton middleweight, announced today his retirement from the ring.

During his 11-year career, Terry twice challenged unsuccessfully for the 160-pound championship, losing to Ben Jeby and Gorilla Jones.

Three's A Crowd—Or Is It?

All the resources of the United States navy were loaned, it is said, to Warner Bros. for the production of a thrilling melodrama called "Submarine D-1" which opens tomorrow at the Liberty theater and is announced as the most stirring and authentic film ever made with a "tin fish"—as the gobs irreverently term an undersea boat—as its subject.

The movie folk journeyed to Newport, R. I., to make part of it, down to Cocos Coco in the Panama canal zone for another, and ten to San Diego for a lot more.

One of the most modern of submarines, the real D-1 (also known as the Dolphin), was used for the picture. Battleships, cruisers, destroyers and the like, by the score are to be seen in its action.

MANY NEVER SUSPECT CAUSE OF BACKACHES

This Old Treatment Often Brings Happy Relief

Many sufferers relieve nagging backaches quickly, once they discover that the real cause of their trouble may be tired kidneys. The kidneys are nature's chief way of taking the excess acids and waste out of the blood. Most people pass about 3 pints a day or about 8 pounds of waste.

Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning shows there may be something wrong with your kidneys or bladder.

An excess of acids or poisons in your blood, when due to functional kidney disorders, may be the cause of nagging backaches, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up at night, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness.

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, used successfully by millions for over 40 years. They give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.

EXERTS EFFORT TO HOLD DEFICIT AS LOW AS POSSIBLE

President Ends First Year of Second Term With New Problems

By The Associated Press
WASHINGTON, Jan. 20.—President Roosevelt completed the first year of his second term today, facing new problems born of a business recession, but clothed by the supreme court with new powers to meet them.

Historians may remember the year for two reasons:

1. The industrial decline that marked its final month.
2. The momentous judicial developments in which the President suffered his most severe legislative defeat but ultimately triumphed in his demand for

"My Skin Was Full of Pimples &amp; Blemishes from Constipation"

broader supreme court interpretation of the constitution. Partly because of the bitterness engendered by his court reorganization bill, congress moved away from the President during the year almost as decisively as the supreme court moved toward him.

The change in the business situation was equally marked. A year ago, when industry was booming, Mr. Roosevelt said in his inaugural speech, "our progress out of the depression is obvious."

Then he was pleading with the nation not to regard the new-found prosperity as "the promised land," but to "carry on" toward greater progress. A balanced budget for this fiscal year was indicated.

Effort To Lessen Output
Now the President is busily conferring with industrial leaders on ways of stopping the recession. He and congress are struggling to hold the year's federal deficit as close as possible to a billion dollars.

Mr. Roosevelt took his second oath a year ago today in a down-pour of rain. But his political prospects were bright. He had been re-elected by the biggest popular majority in history. He had gained majorities in congress. The only visible obstacle to his program was the possibility of unfavorable supreme court decisions.

Two weeks later Mr. Roosevelt undertook to get around that obstacle. He asked congress to enlarge the court provided those members over 70 years of age did not retire. A nation-wide controversy followed.

The next few months brought two developments which vitally

VETERAN ACTOR DIES SUDDENLY

CULVER CITY, Calif., Jan. 20.—(P)—Robert McWade, veteran character actor, finished his final scene late Wednesday in the movie "Benefits Forged," walked from the range of the camera, slumped in a chair and died of a heart attack.

Director Clarence Brown of M-G-M had just congratulated the 56-year-old actor on his performance.

"Good work, Bob," Brown said as the camera stopped. "That's your final scene."

"Yes, that's my final scene," replied McWade.

James Stewart and Gene Lockhart, other members of the cast, noticed that McWade appeared exhausted as he sat down. In an instant, he slumped forward. As actors and technicians rushed to his side he was lifeless.

Dr. Susan Jones, M-G-M physician, said he had succumbed to a heart attack.

McWade died in civil war costume and grease paint. He portrayed the role of a civil war officer.

affected the congressional battle over the court bill. Some of those who led the President's fight have since blamed these happenings for defeat of the measure.

One was the spread of sit-down strikes in the automobile industry. Many members of congress were aroused because the President did not intervene. Some votes for the court bill were lost when he remained silent.

Then came a series of supreme court decisions holding constitutional state minimum wage laws, the Wagner labor act, and the social security law.

Pleas To Withdraw Bill
Some legislators pleaded with the President to withdraw the court bill. Too late, he agreed to a compromise that won few votes. Suddenly, his legislative chieftain—Senator Joseph T. Robinson of Arkansas—died.

Almost immediately the court bill followed Robinson to the grave. But the division it had created within party ranks was widened by a close contest between Senators Harrison of Mississippi and Barkley of Kentucky to succeed Robinson as Democratic leader. Barkley won by a single vote.

Southerners and some anti-court bill senators who had supported Harrison were alienated again by the administration's wage-hour bill. The southerners' wounds were not healed by a senate attempt to pass the anti-lynching bill.

Then came the supreme court nomination of Senator Black D. (Ala.), an ardent administration follower. This reopened the old court bill sores again, especially after it developed Black once had been a member of the Ku Klux Klan.

When congress finally adjourned in August, little of the President's program had been enacted.

Determined to get his program through, Mr. Roosevelt called congress into special session in November against the advice of some of his leaders.

The court issue was not revived, but its bitterness remained. The President got a farm bill through the house and senate, but the wage-hour bill was shelved in the house.

A housing bill asked by the chief executive also was passed by both houses, but neither it nor the farm bill reached the statute books. Nothing was done on the President's other recommendations.

By this time the business slump had developed, and there were widespread demands to revise the corporate surplus tax law. Publicly the President left this issue with congress. His leaders there held up action until the 1938 session.

ACTIVITIES OF HENDERSON POST OF THE LEGION

Clay T. Henderson Post No. 98 and auxiliary gave a very interesting program at Memorial Baptist church Sunday evening. Talks were made by Peter T. O'Brien, past state commander, and Dr. Maddox, past state vice commander.

Dr. Maddox, finance officer, Marvin Jefferson, vice commander, LeVaunt Taylor, adjutant and Post Commander Carl Abbott attended the district meeting at Marshall Sunday afternoon.

Members of the post enjoyed a surprise smoker at their club room, 217 West Pettis Tuesday night. Legionnaire Luke Wind was master of social activities. Plenty refreshments for all. Post Commander Carl Abbott and Adjutant LaVaunt Taylor made short talks.

Go where summer winters TO SOUTHERN TEXAS NEW MEXICO-ARIZONA

California

For many years, in many ways, we have been telling the story of this famous Winter Vacation Land—where you can play out-of-doors the year 'round.

It is an old story, but each year brings new improvements, faster trains—new comforts—to make your Santa Fe trip more pleasant.

This winter Santa Fe offers a new high in travel comfort, convenience and variety of service to the famous Winter Vacation Lands of the sunny, healthful, out-of-doors southwest.

There are 3 Daily Santa Fe Trains to California: The Chief, extra fare, strictly first class; California Limited; Grand Canyon Limited; Navajo, and that famous solid coach and tourist-sleeper economy train, The Scout.

There will be matchless winter service to and from San Bernardino for Palm Springs—and four times each week The Chief will carry a through Pullman to Phoenix.

We will gladly supply you with complete information about trains, fares, and other details concerning an economical winter trip to the southwest.

SUNDAY DINNER Suggestions

By ANN PAGE

THE housewife who has to squeeze adequate meals for her family out of a very limited amount of money is having an easier time this month. Butter is under forty cents a pound, eggs are reasonable, beef and pork prices lower than last year, apples and the citrus fruits inexpensive, vegetables and salad greens low in price.

Cheapest among the vegetables are beets, broccoli, cabbage, carrots, lettuce, parsnips, potatoes and turnips. Beans, peas, mushrooms, celery and spinach are a little higher, but not expensive.

Seasonable foods make up the following menus.

Low Cost Dinner
Braised Chuck Steak
Potatoes Carrots Turnips Onions

Good News For Budgeteers

(By Martha Logan)

Perhaps the best news of the day is that now you can serve meat more often due both to economical prices and to the greater supply of good quality animals being shipped to market. More meat available means better meals and better health for the family. It is indeed an occasion for rejoicing to find that after the recent shortage of feed for livestock, we can now buy more liberal servings of meat and can have those cuts that are desired by most of us. A bumper crop makes that possible.

How much easier it is to plan good meals if we can buy the meat we want to use as the foundation for our meals! During the winter months when cold and more strenuous activities tax our resistance, a generous allowance of meat in the diet is one of the best health measures one can adopt.

How much easier it is to plan good meals if we can buy the meat we want to use as the foundation for our meals! During the winter months when cold and more strenuous activities tax our resistance, a generous allowance of meat in the diet is one of the best health measures one can adopt.

Meat is a veritable storehouse of tissue-building material so essential for growing children and active adults. From meat, too, we get a good supply of energy—especially if we eat good quality meat well marbled with fat. Besides these two important features meat also supplies us with iron, phosphorus, sodium, and other minerals that doctors up the whole body and keep our vitality at par. Working with these minerals in this job of creating and maintaining maximum health are those famous little vitamins so liberally supplied by meats. These are "pep-uppers" or "protective food" elements that make so much difference in one's whole general health.

We don't have to talk about

Is it any wonder we say it is just cause for thankfulness that you can now serve meat more often.

We don't have to talk about

MARTHA LOGAN suggests - - - Hot Sliced Tongues Toastwiches

Arrange slices of cooked smoked beef tongue on hot buttered toast. Pour over this a hot, piquant tomato sauce.

To cook the tongue: Simmer in water 2½ to 3½ hours, or until tender. Let cool in liquid until cool enough to handle. Skin. Slice diagonally to secure uniform slices, as shown in the picture.

the savory goodness of meat and about the satisfaction that results from a meal built around a good juicy steak or roast. But how many women realize that the better grades of steak and roasts are more savory and give even greater satisfaction?

Our suggestion for today is to buy a first-quality rump of chuck roast of beef, branded to show the grade. This beef will be so tender and so well streaked with fat that it may be oven roasted rather than pot roasted.

In roasting any meat, it is best to place the roast with the fat side up so that the melted fat bastes the roast and enriches the entire cut. Of course, a tender roast should not be covered nor should water be used. Just place the roast, fat side up in an open pan. A rib roast should be placed so that the rib bones form a rack. Other roasts should be placed on a rack laid in the pan.

This prevents overbrowning of the under surface.

You may salt the roast although the flavor does not penetrate over an inch or so.

High grade chuck and rump roasts of beef may be served rare or medium done, just the same as rib roasts.

In recent years there has been a radical change in our idea about the best oven temperature for roasting. We no longer use a very hot oven because the roast will lose too much of its juiciness.

Instead we recommend roasting all meat in a moderate oven—about 325° F. A beef roast will require about 18 to 22 minutes per pound for rare, 22 to 25 minutes for medium, and 27 to 30 minutes for well-done beef. Remember, too, that a large roast will continue to cook for about half an hour after it is removed from the oven, so if you want a rare roast be sure to time the cooking period so as to avoid a delay in serving, or reduce the cooking time.

Try serving a beef chuck oven roast with browned potatoes, hot spiced apricots, and buttered green string beans.

Merrill Had "One-Parachute
Jump in 30 Years" Record
Parachute jumping is a side-line avocation with some aviators, but not with Captain Dick Merrill, who successfully crossed the Atlantic ocean four times in less than a year.

Pilot Merrill has been forced to make but one parachute jump in his aviation career of almost thirty years.

It was in 1930 in the Blue Ridge Mountains, thirty miles west of Shelby, North Carolina, that Merrill made his one and only forced parachute jump. He was flying the Atlanta to Richmond run in extremely bad weather when his Pittsfield Mailwing biplane ran out of gasoline. As a safe landing of the plane was impossible Merrill made a successful parachute jump then located the airplane, took the mail to Casar, North Carolina, placed it on a train and sent the mail safe and sound to its destination.

Merrill's actions always reveal great determination and sound judgment. And just as he shows good judgment in parachute jumping he likewise shows good judgment in his choice of breakfast cereal. He chooses the breakfast of Great Americans, Quaker Oats, which is rich in Vitamin B.

FACTS AND FANCIES

Meal-In-One

Did you ever blend more than one can of soup and concoct a tasty dish that is hearty enough for a whole meal? Try this:
Cut four slices of bacon into slim snips, then fry until crisp.
Add one small onion, chopped fine, and brown with the bacon.
Drain off fat.
Combine bacon and onion mixture with one 10-ounce can cream of tomato soup, one 10-ounce can chicken noodle soup.

Simmer a few minutes, then sear-son with one teaspoon beefsteak sauce.

CUSTARD PIE—Three eggs,
one pint milk, one-half cup sugar, flavor to taste. Bake slowly in one crust. Start pie baking in a hot oven, about 400 degrees, and after ten minutes turn it down to 350 to finish. The hot oven bakes the crust and prevents the custard sinking in and making the crust soggy. A custard should bake in about 40 minutes. However, when it seems done, insert a silver knife into the custard. If it comes out clean the pie is done.

WHEAT AND CORN BOTH ADVANCE
CHICAGO, Jan. 20—(AP)—Wheat scored maximum gains of 1 1/2c in Chicago today, stimulated by enlarged export business in North American wheat and disappointment over moisture scantiness southwest.

Between 500,000 and 750,000 bushels of what from North America was bought today for shipment to Europe. The best for No. 2 red what here was advanced in some cases 2 cents a bushel.

Despite last minute reactions, Chicago wheat futures closed 1/4 to 1/2c above yesterday's finish, May 95 1/2 to 97 1/2c; July 90 1/2 to 92 1/2c; corn 1/2 to 1/4c up; May 60 1/2 to 61c, July 61 1/2c; and oats 1/2c advanced.

OKLAHOMA MAN ABDUCTED TAKEN ON LONG JAUNT

Car Dealer Tells of Being Captive 4 Days With 2 Gunmen

McALESTER, Okla., Jan. 20.—(P)—Near a physical collapse, Clay Patterson, prominent Holdenville automobile dealer, was found Wednesday near here and told a story of four harrowing days of captivity while two young gunmen took him on a 2,000-mile ride.

Barefoot, feet blistered, legs scratched, the man for whom a wide search had been pressed since Sunday, was picked up by State Patrolman Harold Watson at Fanshawe, 46 mile east of here. Brought here, Patterson told Capt. Jack Roberts of the patrol two hitch-hikers accosted him on a bridge as he was driving from Holdenville to Allen, later produced pistols, forced him to drive south.

In Three States His captors, Patterson told Roberts, made no mention of robbery nor ransom as they drove to Dallas, Tex., to Shreveport, La., to New Orleans, thence back to Antlers, Okla.

Nor did they mistreat him, he said, except to force him to buy gasoline and make him remove his shoes Monday to "keep me from escaping." Then he said they forced him from a stolen car near Fanshawe and sped away.

With state patrolmen, Patterson son returned late Wednesday to his home in Wewoka, where he was reunited with his wife and 17-year-old daughter, Elaine, treated his swollen feet, drank a bowl of soup and went to bed to rest.

In Weakened Condition

At Oklahoma City, Clinton W. Stein, chief of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, said agents would not be put to work on the case until they had talked with Patterson, probably at Holdenville today.

"He is in a pretty weakened condition," Stein said.

Harvey Powell, county attorney at Holdenville, said he planned to question Patterson.

"I was driving toward Allen," Patterson said. "There's a bridge four or five miles from Atwood and when I slowed down to cross it, these two fellows were standing by it."

"They were dressed nicely and one of them stepped out from the bridge smiled and shouted: 'How about a ride, Mister?'"

"I let them in and about two minutes later one of them pulled out a .45 pistol. They told me to keep quiet, and took over the car."

Muddy, Sallow Broken-Out Skin?

Many Who Never Suspected Cause Now Know How To Happily Clear Up Complexion.

Many persons with pimples, and muddy, unhealthy looking skin go on being miserable when they might easily clear them up in a short time. Oftentimes slowed-down activity on the part of the stomach, bowels, kidneys and liver are at the bottom of these troubles. Food turns sour in stomach and bowels that digest too slowly. Too many wastes and acids go into the blood. Lazy kidneys and liver fail to clean them out and these poisons are what make your skin break out, grow muddy—your eyes look dull, your breath bad and keep you tired and depressed.

Ask your druggist for Tanlac. Tanlac is made expressly to help tone up weak, sluggish stomach, bowels, kidneys and liver. It has been used successfully by millions for over 20 years. Get Tanlac today.

HE SELLS TOBACCO TO THEM ALL

But Branch Bobbitt, like so many other independent experts, prefers Luckies...

"AT AUCTIONS in my warehouse in Farmville, North Carolina," says Mr. Branch Bobbitt, "the higher the tobacco sells for, the better my profits. So I'm always glad to see Lucky Strike buyers in there bidding. They know what they want and they'll keep bidding right up until they get it."

"Well—in a cigarette—it's the tobacco that counts. I know tobacco and I know what tobacco is in what cigarettes. So that's one reason I've smoked Luckies for 5 or 6 years."

Mr. Bobbitt represents the "aristocracy" of tobacco experts. He judges the tobacco that the growers grow. He's impartial, not connected with any cigarette manufacturer.

Many other experts agree with Mr. Bobbitt. Sworn records show that, among independent tobacco experts, Luckies have twice as many exclusive smokers as have all the other cigarettes combined.
